The PhD admission process, Department of Mechanical Engineering, IIT Bombay:

1) Invited students have to appear for a written test of duration up to 2 hours. The questions in the test will comprise of: Mathematics studied during the Junior college and 1st year Engineering, Analytical Reasoning, Reading Comprehension, Aptitude Testing, English Grammar.

Reference:

a) Mathematics Questions from past GATE papers.

A sample paper is available on MED webpage for your perusal.

2) Students who qualify in the written test are called for interview. In the interview, the candidate will be tested in the topics, including, but not limited to, core subjects, Master’s/Bachelor’s thesis project, Work experience.